

2011-2012 Community-Wide Course “Judaism for Conversion Candidates”

A 34-week course for anyone considering
Conversion to Judaism

Meets Thursday Evenings

Orientation – August 18-7:30-8:30 Jewish Community Campus (Conference Room C)
--

Class begins August 25
7:00-9:00 p.m.

Sessions Rotate Among Synagogues

- An opportunity to meet and study together and discover what it means to live Jewishly
- A comfortable forum to learn about Jewish holidays, home celebrations, life-cycle observances, rituals and Jewish prayer, Torah, Judaism's view of God and information about the various Jewish movements. Course includes a 30-minute Hebrew component each week
- Create Jewish memories by taking part in a “learner’s” Shabbat experience and participating in other holiday celebrations and observances
- Study with Reform, Conservative and Orthodox Rabbis
- Each student will select a Rabbinic Sponsor

Course fee is $360 - includes textbooks For additional information or to register, email afprogram@aol.com or call 913-327-4622
--